

Googolplex Written Out

Wolfgang H. Nitsche

A graphic featuring a spiral composed of the digits 9 and 6. The word "volume" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font at the top left. The number "1420" is written in a similar font, positioned within the spiral. The spiral itself is formed by a continuous line of 9s and 6s, with the 9s forming the outer curve and the 6s forming the inner curve, creating a sense of depth and rotation.

Stanford University

In 1940, the mathematician Edward Kasner published the book "Mathematics and the Imagination", in which he popularized the words googol and googolplex which his nephew suggested as names for big numbers.
